

Hello there, did you know that the country known as Italy did not unite until the 19th century, the cuisine can be found to have traceable roots as far back as the 4th century BCE? Italian cuisine graces us with its presence everyday no matter where you go and what better way to celebrate that presence then by going to a family owned Italian Restaurant. La Bottega is known for its motto of seasonal by choice, simple by tradition. With the freshest of ingredients La Bottega prides itself on that and simple execution, which makes delicious Italian dishes but don't just take my word for it, go and try La Bottega for yourself.

Enjoy!

Hey there, finding a restaurant that offers a delicious breakfast, lunch, and dinner menu is not easy but boy do I have a place for you! M Street Kitchen offers a menu that does not disappoint. Not only do they have a fabulous breakfast, lunch, and dinner menu they also have a spectacular weekend brunch, happy hour, dessert and even gluten-free menu! Another thing I do not want to forget to mention is that M Street Kitchen has a bakery, so after you have yourself a delicious meal why not treat yourself with a delicious baked good to make your day even more enjoyable. Don't cheat your stomach at this restaurant.

Enjoy!

Hi there, I want to bring to your attention a fantastic restaurant that not only offers an appetizing menu but a wonderful atmosphere as well. It's called Upper West and the feel of this place is unlike any other restaurant I've experience. It has an urban yet rustic décor and a 27-foot bar with a wide selection of specialty cocktails, what's not to like? Upper West offers modern American cuisine that is comforting and inventive. Some dishes they offer are pan roasted fillet mignon, braise short ribs, and miso glazed duck & apple meatballs. Doesn't that sound delicious? Go to Upper West and indulge in every bite!

Enjoy!
